To repeal part of an act relating to the Springhouse and Sumneytown Turnpike Road Company.

WHEREAS, By an act of assembly, passed the seventeenth day of March, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and forty-five, authorizing to build a turnpike road commencing at the Springhouse tavern, in the county of Montgomery, along the bed of the North Wales road to Sumneytown, in said county, which road said company has built at great expense:

Whereas, The company after building the road had a heavy debt, part of which was provided for by a preferred stock, on which an interest of five per centum is guarantied by the company, and for the remainder of the debt, bonds of the company bearing five per centum interest were given:

Whereas, All the income of the road is required for the payment of the necessary repairs and expense, and the payment of the interest on the preferred stock and bond aforesaid, leaving nothing for the holder of the common stock, or for any extraordinary repair:

And whereas, Under the act of incorporation there is a great deal of free travel on said road, which, in their opinion, does great injustice to the stockholders who have given their money for the purpose of making said road; therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That so much of the act incorporating the Springhouse and Sumneytown turnpike road company is hereby repealed, which relates to persons traveling free over the said Springhouse and Sumneytown turnpike road, except persons traveling in funeral processions and persons passing from one part to another along their farms.

AN ACT

Authorizing Simpson Spohn and Philip Goughler, two of the Executors of George Spohn, late of Spring township, Berks county, deceased, to sell the Real Estate of said deceased.

WHEREAS, George Spohn, late of Spring township, Berks county, deceased, in his lifetime made his last will and testament, dated the twentieth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, in which he appointed his son, Simpson Spohn, and his son-in-law, Philip Goughler, his executors, and authorized them as executors to sell his real estate, subject to a charge of four thousand dollars, of which his widow, Susanna Spohn, was to receive the interest and have other privileges upon the premises, and two days afterwards added a codicil to his will, in which he appointed his three other sons, John Spohn, Elijah Spohn and Isaac L. Spohn, executors, in addition to the two already mentioned, giving them the same power and authority jointly with the other executors, to execute his will, in which codicil, however, there is but one subscribing witness; and that the said George Spohn, died on the twenty-fifth of September, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, and his last will and testament was duly proven and admitted to probate, on the eighth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, and letters testamentary granted to said Simpson Spohn and Philip Goughler; the other three executors then being in California; that the codicil was proved and admitted to probate at the same time, as part of the will, the same however being imperfect and defective, being only proved by the one subscribing witness:

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That Simpson Spohn and Philip Goughler, executors of the last will and testament of George Spohn, late of Spring township, Berks county, deceased, be and they are hereby authorized, after giving four successive weeks' notice in one English and one German newspaper, published in Berks county, to sell at public sale all the real estate of said George Spohn, deceased, wherever situate, in the whole or in parts, as may be deemed best for all persons interested, and to execute and deliver deeds or a deed to the purchaser or purchasers thereof, in fee simple: Provided, That before any deed is executed and delivered, the said executors shall make return of the sale or sales, to the orphans' court of Berks county, which court, if they approve of such sale or sales, shall confirm the same: And provided further, That before any sale or sales are confirmed by the court, the said executors shall give bond in double the amount of the sales, with two sureties, to be approved by said court and filed in said court, conditioned for the faithful appropriation and distribution of the purchase moneys, according to the last will and testament aforesaid.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, There is a certain large tract of marsh and meadow land situate in the township of Bristol, in the county of Bucks, called "Pigeon swamp," extending from the head of Bristol mill pond, on both sides of Mill creek and Pigeon Swamp run, several miles in length; this swamp is believed to occasion sickness in the neighborhood, by the noxious vapors arising therefrom, and is known to cause great loss to property holders, by overflowing and rendering unproductive much valuable land :

And whereas, The said creek and run have become obstructed in many places, and are inadequate to carry off the water of said swamp, and a recent survey having shown that there is sufficient fall in the ground to draw off the waters of said swamp, if a suitable channel were made and kept open for the purpose ; therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the owners of freehold estates, either in possession or reversion, in common or in severalty, in the aforesaid marsh and meadow land contained within the following boundaries, to wit:—Beginning at the south-easterly side of the Allentown road, thence down the easterly side of said swamp where it joins the fast land by the several courses thereof, to the road crossing said creek near the head of the mill pond ; thence by the north-easterly side of said road across said swamp ; thence up the westerly side thereof where it joins the fast land by the several courses thereof, and crossing the said Mill creek to the side of the Allentown road aforesaid ; and thence by the same across said swamp to the place of beginning, shall be and they are hereby erected into a body politic and corporate, in law and in fact, under the name, style and title of “The Pigeon Swamp meadow company,” and by the name, style and title aforesaid, to have and enjoy all the usual and necessary powers of bodies politic and corporate ; and the marsh and meadow lands aforesaid, shall be called and known as the Pigeon Swamp Meadow district.

SECTION 2. That it shall and may be lawful for the said company, or of as many of its members as shall see fit to meet together on the fourth Saturday after the passage of this act, and on the first Saturday in March in every year thereafter, at two o'clock in the afternoon, at the house of David B. Taylor, near said meadows, or at such other convenient place as may be hereafter appointed by the annual meeting, of which time and place due notice shall be given to each member, and then and there in person, or by proxy, to elect or choose by ballot or ticket three suitable persons, members of said company, to be managers of said company for the year next ensuing, or until the next election.

SECTION 3. That in case of any vacancy by death, resignation, cessation of ownership or otherwise, of any of the said managers, those remaining shall fill such vacancy by the appointment of a member of the said company to serve as manager until the next annual election.

SECTION 4. That each member of the company, their heirs and successors, shall pay to the managers, for the time being, his, her or their proportion of all expenses incurred or to be incurred by the said managers, in such manner as the company, at their annual meeting, shall from time to time direct.

SECTION 5. That the said managers may convene the company in general meeting, on reasonable notice, whenever the interests of the same require it ; they shall submit to the company, at its Proviso.

SECTION 6. That the annual meeting shall have power to make such rules, ordinances and by-laws, for the regulation of the company, as to them shall appear necessary: Provided, That such rules, ordinances and by-laws shall not be repugnant to the constitution and laws of the commonwealth.

Further duty of managers.

SECTION 7. That it shall be the duty of the said managers to enlarge, deepen, widen, and where necessary, alter the course of the aforesaid creek and run, from the Allentown road aforesaid to the head of the mill pond, and construct a main ditch or water course so as to obtain the greatest fall the ground will admit of, and most effectually drain said Pigeon Swamp Meadow district, and the same from time to time to repair, scour out and keep open; and for such purpose they, or the persons under their directions, shall have power at all times to enter on any lands in said swamp between said road and pond; and the said managers shall keep a regular account of the expenses of constructing and maintaining such draining works, which shall be apportioned among the members of the said company according to the quantity of land by them respectively held in said Pigeon Swamp Meadow district, and until it shall be otherwise directed by the company, they shall call upon each member to work out his, her or their share or portion of the expense aforesaid: Provided, That the nature of the work and urgency of the case will admit; and should any member neglect or refuse to make payment, the said managers shall have power to sue for and recover the same, and all other moneys which shall become due to the company, as other debts of the same amount are recoverable, and cause a survey and valuation of the said Meadow district to be made when directed so to do by the company.
